

I believe Indiana's current no-call statute is very satisfactory and I strongly urge you to oppose any requests to modify it. Those seeking the modification wish to intrude on our privacy.